

PREFACE:

The Cal Poly Shared Reading Program 2003

AN EVENING OF PLAINSONG AND PLAIN TALK BY KENT HARUF

Wednesday, October 15, 2003

7:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Chumash Auditorium

As part of PREFACE: The Cal Poly Shared Reading Program, Kent Haruf is coming to campus to read from Plainsong and to discuss his background and the writing of this national bestseller.

Plainsong is the story of a small ranching town and the converging lives of its residents faced with issues of what it means to be a part of a community and what happens when families are not perfect.

Free public event sponsored by PREFACE:
The Cal Poly Shared Reading Program and the following co-sponsors: Academic Programs, Cal Poly Continuing Education, College of Agriculture, College of Liberal Arts, College of Science and Mathematics, Division of Student Affairs, El Corral Bookstore, Honors Program, Kennedy Library, Office of the Provost, Students of the English Department, Summer Advising Program, The Center for Teaching and Learning, University Center for Teacher Education, Week of Welcome. For more information call 756-1380.

Seven towns people whose lives converge in:
PLAINSONG